

Summer Study 2021 Learning Objectives:

C.G. Jung and the Spiritual Quest of Our Time: An Overview

July 12, 2021

Donald R. Ferrell, PhD, MDiv, STM

1. To outline the Jungian model of the psyche.
2. To explain the psyche's implications for not only our psychological development but our spiritual development as well.
3. To discuss Jung's psychology of religion and his psychology of psychic individuated wholeness and their possible relationship to each other.
4. To describe the reality of the numinosum in human experience and the symbolic forms in which that numinosity is expressed

The Mother: Archetypal, Spiritual, Personal Goddess

July 13, 2021

Julie Bondanza, PhD

1. To explore the archetype of the Mother in her many aspects.
2. To describe the effects of the Mother archetype on our psyches.
3. To give examples of the Mother archetype across various cultures.
4. To relate the Mother archetype to primitive complexes.

Mystical Themes in the Francis of Assisi's Canticle of Brother Sun and Sister Moon

July 14, 2021

Brother Damien Joseph, SSF

1. To engage the text of the Canticle of Brother Sun and Sister Moon and discuss the Canticle in relation to the interconnectedness of all things.

2. To discuss the mystical engagement with the divine and the spirituality of Francis of Assisi.
3. To explain and experience the unspoken worship of just being (“this-ness”).
4. To discuss the relation of suffering and the knowledge of mortality within the numinous experiences of Francis of Assisi.

C.G. Jung’s Quest to Know the Unknowable

July 15, 2021

Jane Selinske, EdD, LCSW, LP, NCPsyA

1. To describe the conflict between Jung’s Christian and Spiritualistic Religious home environment which contributed to his search for a religious function in the psyche.
2. To discuss Spiritualism and its contribution to Active Imagination and Jungian Analytic Psychology.
3. To describe the conflict between Jung and Freud over Spiritualistic Phenomena and Jung’s descent into the psyche.
4. To discuss Jung’s ongoing mythic life with the dead which came out of his original experiences with Spiritualism.

C.G. Jung and Religion after the Death of God

July 16, 2021

Royce Froehlich, PhD, MDiv, LCSW-R

1. To outline some the key concepts in Jung’s Analytical Psychology as they pertain to the religious nature of the human being: homo religiosus.
2. To discuss some key concepts in Jung’s Analytical Psychology within a context of religious faith.
3. To assess Jung’s contribution to the understanding of the religious nature of the human psyche the value of his paradigm for clinical treatment.
4. To describe how Jung’s personal life experiences influenced his theoretical understanding of psychological phenomena.